HISTORIC PRINCETON

THE ESSENTIAL Princeton EXPERIENCE

Princeton is a picturesque town located in Mercer County rich in history and culture. Perhaps mostly known for the prestigious Princeton University Campus. This is a student town filled with restaurants and bars but also museums and performing arts institutions such as McCarter Theatre Center. Another attraction is Princeton Battlefield – a place where General Washington fought one of the nation's key battles during “The Ten Crucial Days”

Touring historic Princeton is a truly unique experience. This tour takes you on foot around the beautiful Princeton Campus to explore the rich history and take you to all the must-see attractions. You will learn the chronological history of the prestigious Princeton University; from its’ humble beginnings to how it became the wealthiest student body in the history of American education as well as one of the most diverse Ivy League School. You will see sites such as Nassau Hall, Princeton Chapel, Prospect Garden, Blair Hall and Rockefeller College. After the campus walk the journey expands into the neighborhoods of Albert Einstein, F Scott Fitzgerald, TS Eliot, Robert Wood Johnson, William Bristol, two United States Presidents, four Secretary of States, three Secretaries of Defense, one vice President as well as the homes of JP Morgan, Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie.

From here you will head to Princeton Battlefield for a self-guided visit. The Battle of Princeton took place in January of 1777. It is remembered as a short but fierce battle resulting in a win for General Washington and his men boosting American morale during this critical war time. The Battlefield is today a preserved site spanning over 681 acres with walking trails, monuments and the Clarke House Museum.

Tours by museum guide or by docent could be added based on availability.
