U.S MARINE CORP MUSEUM & ARLINGTON CEMETERY TOUR

HONOR OUR NATION'S Marine Corp

HEROES IN WASHINGTON , DC & VIRGINIA

Honor our Nation's amazing heroes while in Washington DC. The capital city and surrounding areas have a myriad of attractions, museums and memorial paying tribute to service members and their families. Honoring those that served as well as those currently serving can be done at any time of the year and is always the right thing to do.

Begin your day with a visit to the National Museum of the Marine Corps. Located adjacent to the Marine Corps Base Quantico in Virginia. This museum is a lasting tribute to the commitment, accomplishments and sacrifices made by US marines throughout history. This intuition offers state-of -the-at interpretive exhibits evoking smell, sights and sound of the extra ordinary work and sacrifices Marines do.

On the return to Washington DC the group will pay a visit to Arlington National Cemetery - the largest military cemetery in United States along with your private guide. The ground honors those that have served the nations and have funerals taking place daily. Nestled in greenery and rolling hills Arlington National Cemetery is the final resting place for more than 14,000 veterans. While visiting you will see the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Arlington House, U.S Coast Guard Memorial, The Memorial Amphitheatre and John F Kennedy's gravesite. Exploring the cemetery with a private guide offers a deeper understanding of its history, significance, and ongoing role in honoring military service. The tour provides a meaningful opportunity for both quiet reflection and celebration of the lives and legacies of those laid to rest. The tour also includes a stop at the Iwo Jima Memorial — the U.S. Marine Corps War Memorial — and a glimpse of historic Alexandria.

EXPERT ADVICE:

The afternoon at Arlington National Cemetery can be swapped for a visit to George Washington's Mount Vernon or a monuments tour of the National Mall depending on group's interests.
