VIRGINIA INTERNATIONAL TATTOO & ARTS FESTIVAL

CELEBRATE THE International Tattoo & ARTS FESTIVAL NORFOLK, VA

Norfolk is home to one of Virginia's most exciting spring events "Virginia International Tattoo & Art Festival" spanning over four days attracting thousands of visitors each year with its dynamic blend of culture, music, and tribute.

At the heart of the festival is the Virginia International Tattoo, a breathtaking performance featuring over 800 civilian and military artists from around the globe. This stirring spectacle honors the service and sacrifice of military personnel through powerful music, precision drills, and emotionally resonant presentations. Beyond the Tattoo, the festival grounds come alive with a variety of free and ticketed experiences. Guests can enjoy performances by international drill teams, dancers, vocalists, and musicians, offering a rich tapestry of global talent.

Norfolk is the home of NATO (US) headquarter proudly presenting "The Annual Parade of Nations" the only parade in the country to honor NATO and celebrating international unity. The NATO Flag Raising Ceremony is another prestigious highlight event during the festival, making for a special moment.

With its abundance of dining options, museums, historic landmarks, and close proximity to Virginia Beach, Norfolk is an ideal destination for group travel and cultural exploration.
